Chief of Police James W. Brinn Orders the Contests Called Off.

NO MORE IN THE FUTURE

State's Attorney F. E. Thompson Takes Initiative and Announces End of the Sport.

The boxing carnival scheduled for this evening at Exposition park will not be pulled off. Chief of Police James W. Brinn, after a conference with State's Attorney F. E. Thompson, informed the promoters at noon today that the contests could not be permitted and the event was canceled.

It had been advertised that three boxing contests would be held at the park. Danny Goodman of Chicago and Kid Beebe of Milwaukee were to be the headliners and to go 10 rounds at 133 pounds. Leo Higgins and Kid Morgan, both of Davenport, were to fight six rounds at 116 pounds and Young Ross of Joliet and Young Eddie Evers of Moline, were to mix for eight rounds at 118 pounds. Considerable advertising had been done and many seats sold for the attraction, so that promoters will be out a neat sum of money through the action of the city authorities.

No More Fights.

"There will be no more prize fights in Rock Island county while I am county prosecutor," declared State's Attorney F. E. Thompson in discussing the matter. "In the past I have taken the position that the city authorities should handle the situation, but since the results obtained seem unsatisfactory, I will take the initiative in the future myself."

"I did not learn until after reading last evening's papers that a boxing carnival had been planned for Exposition park this evening. This morning I had a conference with Chief Brinn and I asked him what he expected to do in the premises. He said he did not think the contest should be put on and I told him if he did not stop it I would."

"There have been put on in the county during the summer numerous alleged boxing contests which have all the earmarks of real prize fights and in the future they are to be prohibited."

TO HOLD FORMAL OPENING FRIDAY

Commissioner Jonas Bear Postpones Festivities at City Bathing Beach.

The formal opening of the municipal bathing beach was again postponed from this afternoon until Friday afternoon, by Commissioner Jonas Bear, who has the matter in charge.

The cool weather and indications of rain this morning were given as the reason.

In the meantime, however, the boys are not awaiting the opening, but daily there is a gang of youthful swimmers on the beach enjoying the latest amusement improvement made by the city.

J. Smith he stated that he had not planned on putting it to any use, and insisted so strongly that he was innocent of any intent to cause anybody any bodily harm that he was fined only $3 and costs.

LIVED HERE SINCE 1848

Deceased Was Born in Indiana in 1844
—Served as Supervisor and Deputy Sheriff.

Henry C. Harris, civil war veteran, passed away at 7:30 o'clock last evening at his home, 610 Eighteenth street, after an illness of several months of paralysis and heart trouble. He had been ailing since a year ago last March, when he suffered a stroke, but was not confined to the house until February of this year. Since that time he had been slowly failing.

Mr. Harris was born Aug. 7, 1844, in St. Joe county, Indiana, and came to Rock Island county in 1848 with his parents, Thomas and Jane Harris. When the war broke out he enlisted in the 128th Illinois infantry, but secured a discharge for disability. He re-enlisted in the 87th Indiana infantry for 100 days, and after serving out his time he again enlisted with the 128th Indiana infantry, serving until the end of the war. He saw nearly four years' service.

Following the war he went to South Bend, Ind., where he was united in marriage to Miss Malinda J. Hunt Dec. 21, 1865.

Served as Supervisor.
The death of Mr. Harris will be mourned by all who knew him, as he was well known in this and nearby counties, having been an auctioneer for many years and being in wide demand. He was deputy sheriff for four years under Sheriffs Perkins and Ankrum from 1878 to 1882. For four terms he was a member of the board of supervisors, having retired last spring when his health began to fail.

The only organization of which he was a member was the Grand Army of the Republic, being commander of John Buford Post at the time of his death.

Besides his wife he is survived by four sons, Charles T., Henry H. and W. B., all of Rock Island, and Frank L. of Butte, Mont., and two daughters, Miss Lou M. Harris, county superintendent of schools, and Mrs. Bert V. Elmstedt of Lansing, Mich. Three brothers, J. L. Harris of Edgemoor, J. S. Harris of Berkeley, Cal., and Samuel H. Harris of Eugene, Ore., and one sister, Mrs. C. L. Thompson, Los Angeles, Cal., also survive.

Hold Funeral Wednesday.
Funeral services will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the late home at 610 Eighteenth street. Rev. T. E. Newland will officiate at the home and the members of the Grand Army will have charge at the grave. Interment will be at Chippewa-nock cemetery.

Size of the Sea.
An officer of a liner once remarked that most men seemed to be as ignorant about the size of the sea as they are of the distance between the heavenly planets. Here are a few facts: The Pacific covers 68,000,000 miles, the Atlantic 30,000,000 and the Indian

MILAN ASSAULT CASE ON TRIAL

Ray Prescott Arrested for Attack on Monte Young Aug. 20.

Ray Prescott of Milan, defendant in a case in which he is charged with assaulting Monte Young, proprietor of a pool room in Milan, was this morning arraigned in the court of Justice of the Peace Clarence J. Schroeder. But little testimony was taken and the case was continued until tomorrow morning, in order to give the state an opportunity to secure more witnesses.

The assault is alleged to have taken place on the evening of Aug. 20 in Young's pool hall. It followed the theft of a tarpaulin which is used in covering pool tables. One had been stolen from the place and Young had heard that several young men had it at a camp on the Rock river.

Prescott was a member of the camping party and when he entered the pool hall on that evening Young spoke to him about the matter. Later in the evening Prescott returned to the place and while Young was at play with a customer, called him aside. Young spoke with Prescott for a moment and then returned to the game. Prescott became angry that the owner was not giving him more attention. It is charged that then the assault occurred and that Prescott struck Young on the back of the head with a "sap," flooring the proprietor and rendering him unconscious for several hours.

Prescott disappeared after the assault and was only recently located. The second day of the Rock Island county teachers' institute, which is being held at the local high school building, is proving as great a success as the first. A number of additional teachers from different parts of the county have registered, and it is probable that a still greater number will attend before the meeting closes Friday.

A large number of the teachers were present at the study classes, which were held following the afternoon session. The plan is to hold a study class each day for the teachers who wish to go further into the work covered by the instructors. They do not have enough time during the institute to go into every little detail, and therefore the classes after the meeting have been arranged.

WILSON IS TO BE CANDIDATE AGAIN

Believes It the Duty of President to Submit His Record to the People.

WOULD NOT BE OPPOSED

One-Term Plank in Baltimore Platform Never Discussed by Executive and Secretary Bryan.

A staff correspondent sends the Chicago Tribune of today the following story from the national capital:

Washington, D. C., Aug. 31.—President Wilson will be a candidate for a second presidential term.

Definite information that Mr. Wilson has expressed himself as believing it the duty of a chief executive to submit his administration to the people of the country, so that they may express their approval or disapproval of it, came to the Tribune correspondent today from an authoritative source.

It was before Mrs. Wilson's death that the president expressed himself to a friend upon the subject of a second presidential term. Since that time people in touch with the administration have entertained the opinion that he might be so disheartened by the death of Mrs. Wilson and by the drain upon his strength made by the ever increasing round of official duties that he might prefer quieter scenes and a less strenuous regime at the end of the present term.

Will Live Up to Duty.
Those who are familiar with the president's character, however, do not believe, in the light of his expressed views with regard to a second term, that he will fail to live up to what he conceives to be his duty in the matter.

Political leaders both within and without the democratic party, believe that if Mr. Wilson is a candidate for the democratic nomination he will not be seriously opposed. From an authoritative source it has been learned that not long ago Secretary of State Bryan expressed the view that if the Wilson administration was a success Mr. Wilson could have the democratic nomination for the asking, and that if the administration did not measure up to the public expectation the nomination would not be worth having.

Hasn't Consulted Bryan.
From the source where the information with respect to the president's attitude toward the second term principle was obtained there came the statement that the president and Secretary of State Bryan have no agreement of any sort on the subject of Mr. Wilson's future ambitions.

At the time that Mr. Bryan accepted the first portfolio of Mr. Wilson's cabinet a report was circulated that the two men had interchanged views upon the subject of a second term, and that an understanding existed that Mr. Wilson would not be a candidate in the way of Mr. Bryan in the next national contest. This report has been recurrent during the present administration.

One Term Plank Dropped?
The president's confidant, with regard to a second term today expressed the opinion that Mr. Wilson or Mr. Bryan never has discussed the single term plank of the democratic national platform adopted at the Baltimore convention.

The plank of the democratic platform with reference to the term of the president is in the following language: "We favor a single presidential term, and to that end we urge the adoption of an amendment to the constitution making the president of the United States ineligible for re-election, and we pledge the candidate of this convention to this principle."

Plank Various Constructed.
This plank has been variously constructed. In some quarters it is regarded as committing the candidate of the convention which framed the platform only to an effort to secure an amendment to the constitution making the president ineligible for a second term.

On the other hand, Secretary of State Bryan at various times has been credited with placing the opposite construction upon the commitment. It has been stated that Mr. Bryan, who headed the platform committee of the Baltimore convention, wrote this single term plank with the express idea of preventing the candidate of that convention from standing in the way of the commoner's own presidential ambitions four years thereafter.
